Partner agrees that Booking.com may issue a press release or announcement about its relationship with Partner under this Agreement.
13. LIABILITY
- 13.1 Exclusions of Liability:
- Availability: Each party acknowledges the difficulties inherent in the use of the internet and communication networks and technologies. In particular, varying speeds and network congestion can cause interruptions, delays and difficulties in accessing, browsing, navigating or using a platform. Each party excludes any and all liability in respect of the other party which is related to any outage, downtime, interruption, breakdown, malfunction or unavailability (whether for maintenance, upgrades, updates or otherwise) of the Booking.com Platform, the Booking.com Service and/or the Partner Platform.
 - Travel Experience: Each party acknowledges that (i) all Travel Experiences are supplied to Visitors and Guests by third party suppliers and not by Booking.com, which is only acting as a facilitator; and (ii) Booking.com does not in any way (directly or indirectly, independently or in conjunction with any party) own, manage, operate or control any Travel Experience. Partner excludes any and all liability in respect of Booking.com which is related to the quality of the Travel Experience.
 - Indirect Losses: Except with respect to liability pursuant to Clauses 13.3.d and 13.3.e, neither party will be liable to the other, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise under or in connection with this Agreement for any indirect or consequential Losses, loss of profit or loss of revenue.

 - any liability under Clause 8.9, which will not exceed EUR 100,000 in a year;
 - any liability of Partner under Clauses 6.1.e (Warranties and Disclaimers), 10 (Data Protection and Security), 11 (Compliance), 12 (Confidentiality and Publicity) or as a result of an Incident;

- notify the Indemnifying Party of the claim within ten (10) Business Days of becoming aware of the claim;
 - allow the Indemnifying Party to take over and assume the defence and settlement of the claim at the Indemnifying Party's cost (in consultation with the Indemnified Party if such defence and/or settlement could negatively affect the Indemnified Party). The Indemnified Party may (but is not obliged to) elect to employ counsel at its own expense in respect of the defence and settlement of such claim;
 - give the Indemnifying Party reasonable assistance in connection with the conduct of the claim (at the Indemnifying Party's cost); and
 - not admit any liability or agree to any settlement without the Indemnifying Party's prior approval (not to be unreasonably withheld).
14. TERM, TERMINATION AND SUSPENSION
- 14.1 Duration: Unless agreed otherwise, this Agreement will commence on the date of last signature and continue until terminated in accordance with its terms.
- 14.2 Voluntary Termination: Either party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect at any time by giving the other party written notice.
- 14.3 Automatic Termination: This Agreement will terminate automatically if no Reservations are made via the Partner Platform for a period of twelve (12) consecutive months.
- 14.4 Suspension: If Booking.com considers that Partner is in material breach of this Agreement, then Booking.com will be entitled to suspend the availability of the Booking.com Platform and/or, upon notification to Partner of the material breach, its obligation to pay any Partner Commission or other amount under this Agreement (such that Partner's entitlement to receive payment will not accrue during the period of suspension).
- 14.5 Wind Down: In the event of a termination of this Agreement, the parties agree to honour any Reservations made before the termination date and, for this purpose, shall continue to comply with all obligations in this Agreement which are reasonably necessary for the purpose of honouring such Reservations.
15. CONSEQUENCES OF TERMINATION
- 15.1 Booking.com Materials and Booking.com Platform: Upon termination of this Agreement, Partner will:
- destroy, delete or upon request of Booking.com return all Booking.com Materials (including all hard and soft copies) and will, upon request, confirm in writing to Booking.com that all such Booking.com Materials have been destroyed, deleted or returned. Partner may, however, keep copies of Booking.com Materials as necessary to confirm any final Partner Commission payments (after which time it must be deleted) or as part of

- b. promptly remove and disable any interface/connection between the Partner Platform and the Booking.com Platform, to the extent it is within Partner's control to do so.
- 15.2 Accrued Rights Unaffected: Termination or expiry of the Agreement will not affect any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the parties that have accrued up to the date of termination.
- 15.3 Payment Obligations Upon Termination: Unless this Agreement has been terminated by Booking.com in circumstances where Partner is in material breach of this Agreement, Booking.com will pay accrued and payable Partner Commission in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, provided the contact details and bank account supplied by Partner in the Partner Information are correct. If Booking.com is unable to pay the Partner Commission for up to six (6) months following the termination date because the Partner Information is incorrect, then Partner will be deemed to have effectively waived its right to such Partner Commission and no Partner Commission will be due.
- 15.4 Continuing Obligations: Any provision of this Agreement which expressly or by implication is intended to continue in force after termination or expiry will remain in full force and effect, including this Clause and Clauses 8 (Intellectual Property except 8.3, 8.6 and 8.7), 9 (Booking Holdings Group Supply), 10 (Data Protection and Security), 12 (Confidentiality and Publicity) and 13 (Liability).
16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING
- 16.1 Consent Generally Required: Subject to the remainder of this Clause, neither party is permitted to assign, transfer, novate or subcontract the benefit of this Agreement, or to subcontract its obligations under it, without the other party's prior written consent (not be unreasonably withheld or denied).

- 16.3 Permitted Subcontracting by Booking.com: Booking.com may, without Partner's prior consent, subcontract the performance of administrative or other functions related to the operation of Booking.com's business generally.
- 16.4 Responsibility for Subcontractors: The parties will remain responsible for all the acts or omissions of subcontractors as if they were the acts or omissions of that party.
17. GENERAL
- 17.1 English Language: If the original English version of this Agreement has been translated into other languages, the translated version of the English language Agreement is provided as a courtesy and office translation only. Partner cannot derive any rights from the translated version. In the event of a dispute about the content or interpretation of this Agreement or in the event of a discrepancy between the English version and any other language version of this Agreement, the English language version will prevail. The English version only will be used in any legal proceedings.
- 17.2 Costs: Each party will bear its own costs and expenses in connection with the entering into, execution and performance under this Agreement (including in respect of the integration and connection of the Booking.com Platform to the Partner Platform).
- 17.3 Agreement Change: Except where provided otherwise in this Agreement, any change to this Agreement must be agreed in writing and signed by an authorised representative of each party or via exchange and confirmation online (including via e-mail or in the Partner Centre).
- 17.4 Force Majeure Events: Neither party will be liable for a breach of or liability under this Agreement caused by a Force Majeure Event. Each party undertakes to notify the other party promptly should a Force Majeure Event occur and impact the performance under this Agreement. The party whose performance of obligations is impacted by the Force Majeure Event shall use reasonable efforts to mitigate the impact of the Force Majeure Event. As soon as the Force Majeure Event resolves, the prevented party shall promptly resume operations.
- 17.5 Interim Relief: Nothing in this Agreement prevents either party from making any application to a court to obtain an interim remedy (including an injunction) for any threatened or actual breach of this Agreement.
- 17.6 Notices to Parties:

- i. to Booking.com, via the Partner Centre; and
- ii. to Partner, via the Partner Centre, by email or by hard copy, unless otherwise specified between the parties.
- b. Notices will be sent to Partner's address as specified in the Partner Information. Each party may change its contact details by giving notice to the other party.

E-mailed notices will be deemed to have been given as of the date emailed, subject to Clause 17.6 (Notices to Parties).
- 17.8 Severability: If any Clause (or part of a Clause) in this Agreement is unenforceable, invalid or illegal for any reason, the other Clauses of this Agreement will remain in force as if they had been executed without the offending text appearing in this Agreement (and the offending text will be deemed to be substituted with drafting that has the closest effect and is enforceable).
- 17.9 Waiver: No delay or omission by either party to exercise any right or remedy provided for by law or under this Agreement will operate to waive, limit or otherwise affect that right or remedy.
- 17.10 No Partnership or Agency: Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, or will be deemed to: (a) establish any partnership or joint venture between Booking.com and Partner, or (b) make one party the agent of the other. Neither party has the authority or power to bind, create a liability for, or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of, the other party.
- 17.11 Entire Agreement: This Agreement constitutes the whole and only agreement between the parties relating to its subject matter and supersedes and excludes all prior agreements or arrangements made between them that relate to it. This Agreement shall prevail over any inconsistent terms or conditions contained or referred to in any Partner purchase order, confirmation of order, acceptance of a quotation or specification, or any terms implied by law, trade custom, practice or course of dealing.
- 17.12 Third Party Rights: This Agreement is not intended to, and does not, give any person, corporate or unincorporated body (whether or not having separate legal personality) who is not a party to it any rights to enforce any provisions contained in it except for: (a) Booking.com Affiliates, who shall be entitled to enforce any rights expressed as benefiting them; and (b) any other provisions which expressly provide for enforcement by a third party.

- 17.13 E-Signatures and Counterparts: Unless Applicable Law requires otherwise, this Agreement may be agreed and/or executed through online processes pursuant to Clause 17.3 or using electronic signatures. This Agreement may also be executed in one or more counterparts. Each counterpart will constitute an original and together they will constitute a single agreement. APPENDIX 2

BOOKING.COM SECURITY, PRIVACY AND PROCESSING REQUIREMENTS

This Appendix forms part of the General Partner Terms. If there is a conflict between this Appendix and the remainder of the General Partner Terms, it should be resolved in favour of this Appendix.

1. RELATIONSHIP AND PERSONAL DATA PROCESSED

1.1 Roles of parties: The parties acknowledge and agree on the following:

- a. each party acts in principle as an independent and separate Controller where it Processes Personal Data in connection with this Agreement, and in this capacity: (i) determines at its sole discretion the purposes and means of such Processing, and (ii) is fully responsible for its own compliance with Technology and Data Laws;
- b. neither party Processes Personal Data on behalf of the other party;
- c. should any situation lead the parties to jointly determine the purposes and means of a given Processing by Booking.com or by Partner of any Personal Data in the context of this Agreement, each party shall be responsible for determining its respective responsibilities for compliance with obligations under Technology and Data Laws. Unless otherwise provided, each party shall handle data subject requests sent to it directly. The other party shall, at its own cost, provide all reasonable cooperation, assistance and information to enable the other party to handle such requests.

1.2 Personal Data shared by Booking.com: The parties acknowledge and agree on the following:

- a. Booking.com may share with Partner the information and Personal Data necessary in connection with this Agreement;
- b. Partner undertakes to Process such information and Personal Data solely for the purposes necessary in connection with this Agreement, and undertakes to comply with all use restrictions that arise as a result thereof from Technology and Data Laws, notably in terms of purpose limitation. In particular, except as otherwise permitted in this Agreement and to the extent such purposes were communicated to the Data Subject at the time of collection, Partner undertakes not to (directly or indirectly):
 - i. approach, contact or solicit any Data Subject, Visitor or Guest;

1.3 Integrations: The parties acknowledge that the integrations chosen by Partner do not create any joint controllership between the parties, even in relation to the collection of Personal Data through such integrations, due to the technical features thereof. As a result, Booking.com acts as sole Controller for the collection and further Processing of such Personal Data carried out through or thanks to such integration. Partner undertakes not to (seek to) intercept any Personal Data Processed in such a way.

1.4 Personal Data shared by Partner:

a. If Partner shares Personal Data with Booking.com other than through an integration as described under Clause 1.3, then the following requirements apply:

- ii. Partner shall obtain prior written confirmation from Booking.com for the disclosure of the Personal Data;
- iii. Partner shall ensure that the collection of such Personal Data and its disclosure are permitted under Technology and Data Laws; and

b. Booking.com shall not directly market (e.g. sending of newsletters or special promotions, (for example re-targeting services and online e-mail registration on the Partner Platform)) to Data Subjects or Visitor or Guests, unless that Data Subject, Visitor or Guest:

- i. visits or (has) visited a Booking.com website (other than through the Partner Platform) or otherwise has given consent to Booking.com to retarget or (re)market to them prior to the parties entering into this Appendix; or
- ii. has after the commencement of this Appendix given (tacit or express as applicable) consent for Booking.com to directly market or retarget them, in either case whether such consent is granted by the Data Subject's or Visitor's or Guest's separate access to the Booking.com Platform or any channel other than the Partner Platform.

2. TRANSPARENCY, COMPLIANCE AND PRIVACY PRINCIPLES

2.1 Transparency:

- a. Each party shall strive to comply with the principle of transparency in relation to the Processing of Personal Data, for instance through the provision of a relevant privacy statement to Data Subjects whenever required by Technology and Data Laws.
- b. For the avoidance of doubt, this also applies to the Processing by Partner of Personal Data of/relating to Data Subjects acting on behalf of Booking.com (e.g. staff, contractors, agents).
- c. For any Processing by Booking.com of Personal Data of/relating to Data Subjects acting on behalf of Partner (e.g. staff, contractors, agents), Partner acknowledges that such Processing takes place in accordance with the Booking.com privacy statement for business partners, made available online, as may be amended by Booking.com from time to time (presently found at <https://admin.booking.com/hotel/hoteladmin/privacy.html>). Partner procures that it will make such privacy statement available to such Data Subjects prior to providing their Personal Data to Booking.com and warrants that the provision to Booking.com of such Personal Data for such purposes is lawful.

- 2.2 Compliance: Partner shall implement measures in a manner that it meets all requirements under Technology and Data Laws in relation to this Agreement and performance thereof. Partner shall employ procedures to monitor its compliance with Technology and Data Laws. Partner shall not Process the Personal Data in a manner that may be detrimental to the reputation of Booking.com or have any other negative effect on Booking.com.
- 2.3 Privacy Principles: When Processing Personal Data as Controller in the context of performance of this Agreement, Partner shall ensure:
- that the Personal Data is Processed lawfully and fairly;
 - that it Processes such Personal Data only for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes in accordance with Technology and Data Laws and does not further Process Personal Data in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes;
 - that the Processing shall be limited to what is adequate, relevant and necessary in relation to the purposes for which Partner Processes such Personal Data, including by ensuring that any individual acting under its authority who has access to Personal Data does not process it except on instructions from Partner;
 - that such Personal Data it Processes is accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date, including by taking every reasonable step to ensure that Personal Data that is inaccurate is erased or rectified without delay;
 - that such Personal Data is kept in a form which permits identification of Data Subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the Personal Data are Processed; and
 - that it is able to demonstrate compliance with this Clause 2.3.
- 2.4 Cooperation: Each party shall, at its own cost, provide all reasonable cooperation, assistance and information to enable the other party to comply with its obligations under Technology and Data Laws, including assisting the other party with the following:
- responding to requests from or notifying competent authorities (including supervisory authorities) in relation to the Booking.com Materials and Personal Data Processed and shared in the context of this Agreement;
 - responding to requests from Data Subjects wishing to exercise their privacy rights pursuant to Technology and Data Laws; and
 - conducting any assessment to validate compliance with the Technology and Data Laws and this Appendix.
- ### 3. SECURITY & INCIDENTS
- 3.1 General security measures: Each party shall implement and maintain technical and organisational measures appropriate to the risks to ensure the security (including the integrity, confidentiality, availability and continuity) of the Personal Data it Processes in the context of this Agreement, the Confidential Information it has received from the other party and of any digital properties (websites or other) within the scope of this Agreement, and to prevent, mitigate and respond to Incidents. Without limitation to the foregoing, Partner shall take into consideration minimum market practice such as the OWASP Top Ten lists or any other reasonable and relevant practices required by Booking.com in writing.
- 3.2 Incidents - Reasonable and Appropriate Remedial Actions: If at any time Partner becomes aware of, or has reasonable grounds to suspect, the occurrence of any Incident, Partner shall:
- without undue delay notify Booking.com and consult with Booking.com on the reasonable and appropriate actions to be taken;
 - subject to limitations existing under Applicable Law, be responsible for proactively providing all information necessary to Booking.com such that Booking.com can be fully informed and undertake its own investigation related to the cause, mitigation measures taken, and damages incurred or likely to be incurred by either party, and third parties, with respect to the Incident;
- take all immediate reasonable and appropriate actions required by the situation, even prior to any consultation (in which case Partner shall consult with Booking.com as soon as reasonably practicable afterward), to avoid or mitigate any adverse effects for Booking.com, and to prevent (further) harm to Booking.com or the affected Data Subjects; and
 - cooperate with Booking.com in taking any reasonable and appropriate action to address the Incident.
- 3.3 Incidents - Disclosure: Subject to mandatory requirements under Applicable Law, Partner:
- shall in no manner provide information to any third party (including any Regulator) without the prior notification of Booking.com; and
 - acknowledges and agrees that Booking.com retains the right to inform any third party (including any Regulator and affected Data Subjects) about any Incident, in particular where required by Applicable Law or where such Incident is not specific to Partner.
- ### 4. INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS
- 4.1 Data transfer to Non-EEA recipients: The parties shall ensure that Personal Data is only transferred to or accessed by recipients outside the EEA if such transfer is in accordance with Technology and Data Laws.
- 4.2 Data transfer to non-EEA Partner:
- To the extent the transfer of Personal Data from Booking.com to Partner constitutes a transfer of Personal Data to a non-EEA recipient, where possible an Adequacy Decision will be relied upon as the relevant data transfer mechanism under Technology and Data Laws.
 - For all other situations, the parties acknowledge that such transfer of Personal Data is required for performance of a contract in the interest of the Data Subject.
- ### 5. INSPECTIONS AND AUDITS
- 5.1 Inspection and audit right for Booking.com: Booking.com is entitled to conduct and/or instruct a third party to conduct an inspection of Partner or audit of Partner's records (including Processing- or security-related information), to the extent reasonably necessary to (a) fulfil any legal or reporting obligations of Booking.com, or (b) where Booking.com reasonably suspects non-compliance, verify compliance by Partner with this Appendix. Partner shall, and procures that its employees, agents or representatives shall, fully cooperate with Booking.com and such third party, as applicable, in this context notably by granting access to premises, personnel and information (including making available copies thereof) as are reasonably necessary for those purposes.
- 5.2 Costs: Booking.com shall bear the costs of any such inspection or audit unless it reveals a breach by Partner of any provision of this Agreement, in which event such costs will be borne by Partner, without prejudice to Booking.com's further rights and remedies in respect of such breach.
- ### 6. TREATMENT OF LOSSES
- 6.1 To the extent that any claim or complaint relating to the Processing of Personal Data leads to a finding of non-compliance by Booking.com or any of its Affiliates with Technology and Data Laws and such non-compliance is attributable to Partner, Partner undertakes to pay any related Losses on Booking.com or any of its Affiliates' behalf. Where such payment is not permitted for whatever reason, Partner acknowledges that such non-compliance constitutes a contractual breach as a result of which Partner (as the Indemnifying Party) will be liable towards, and compensate, indemnify and hold Booking.com and each of its Affiliates (as the Indemnified Party) harmless and is required to pay the Indemnified Party a lump-sum indemnity equal to the amount of such Losses. Any claim under this Clause shall be conducted in accordance with Clause 13.5.
